PRACTICE AND TRAINING

Movement

Each day on our Sardinia retreat we have two beautifully balanced yoga sessions and a pilates session designed to strengthen, energise, restore, and reconnect you with your body's natural rhythms.

Morning – Dynamic Flow

We begin with an energizing yoga practice that awakens heat and vitality through intuitive movement and mindful alignment that gently expand your sense of openness and effortless strength.

Evening – Deep Rest & Stillness

As the sun softens, we shift into calming Yin Yoga and Yoga Nidra sessions. These practices invite spaciousness into the body, releasing deep layers of tension while guiding the nervous system into profound relaxation. Slow stretches, long holds, and guided rest support emotional grounding and inner clarity.

Breathwork & Exploration

Throughout the week, breathwork (prāṇāyāma) is woven into both practices, helping you access deeper presence and a more fluid connection between breath and movement.

TRIPS*

Recreation and socialisation

Optional half-day excursions can be arranged.

Just a few minute drive away are the Costa Smeralda's most famous beaches, as well as the centuries-old Olivastri groves, home to the oldest tree in Italy, estimated to be around 4,000 years old.

Any excursions, not included in the price, can be organised, agreed upon with the interests of the group.
